Step into a Story ®
• Open since 1992 in Ogden

• Audience is primarily Northern Utah with 170,000 children and adults each year on site

• Mission is to foster creativity, literacy, and cooperative learning through the lens of stories and children’s literature from around the world
Step into a Story

- On the list of the 25 Best American Children’s Museums according to Early Childhood Education Zone in Sept. 2015

- On the list of the 13 Top Children’s Museums and Science Centers according to Sunset Magazine 2016

- Recipient of the 2015 Sargent Shriver Award for Excellence in Community Service from the National Head Start Association
Programs
Visual Arts To Tell a Story
Theater Arts to Tell a Story
Theater for Children: Treehouse Troupe
Once upon a time, in a land far, far away, there stood a grand castle.

From behind a shuttered window, a sweet and sad voice could be heard singing every day.

One bright morning, there was a loud knock at the castle door.
Theater with Children
• Focus and self control
• Perspective taking and empathy
• Communication and team work
• Literacy skills including comprehension