

Business Membership

The Association of Children's Museums (ACM) is a global professional member service organization for the children's museum field that works to ensure every family and child has access to a high-quality children's museum experience. ACM business members are essential to this collaborative effort. They are valued thought leaders who make significant contributions which advance the field and support the growth of children's museums. Business members bring knowledge of other industries and worldwide trends, and help children's museums continue to grow while creating experiences that nurture visitors to children's museums.

About the Association of Children's Museums

The Association of Children's Museums (ACM) is a global professional member service organization for the children's museum field that works to ensure every family and child has access to a high-quality children's museum experience. For more than 100 years, the mission of children's museums has been enhanced by the support and collaboration of individuals and corporations across the country. ACM has been at the center of this collaborative effort to connect its business and museum members in support of families.

Business Membership Categories

Business Visionary

Business Visionaries are given a wide range of opportunities to share their knowledge and thought leadership within the field. Business Visionaries have exclusive access to opportunities such as hosting webinars, free advertisements, and complimentary InterActivity registration. ACM reviews all business visionary applications.

Description

Describe your company's area of expertise and work.

How do you hope to connect with ACM members? What do you hope to get out of your membership?

Please list three of your clients in the museum or early childhood fields.

If you're considering the Business Visionary Level

ACM values business visionaries as thought leaders and expects that they will contribute substantially to the field. How do you feel your company can build capacity through professional and leadership development in the field?

Description of Products & Services

The ACM website highlights ACM business members on the ACM Products & Services Directory. To be included on this list, new business members must provide a description of their products, services, programs or resources.

Step One: Choose a Products & Services Category

ACM has established product and service categories. Please select up to three categories where you would like your business listed. If none of these categories fit your business services, then you may suggest an appropriate category for ACM consideration in the "Other" section.
